FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK:

Sunday, January 29th, marks the beginning of Catholic Schools Week across the country. Here at St. James, we will begin our celebration with Mass at 10:30. Many of our students will be here celebrating Mass – the 6-7-8 grade choir will be singing and our bell choir will perform a meditation song. Our students will serve as greeters, bring up the gifts, help with the collection. The theme of Catholic Schools Week for the Diocese is the Three Ours- Our Parish, Our School, Our Education. We are especially proud of the theme for two reasons -our school submitted the idea for the theme, and we feel it really embodies what we believe here at St. James. The school exists as a mission of the parish and we could not continue all of the good work we do without the continued support of each of you.

Truly "All Are Welcome" here. Our children come from Vietnam, Cambodia, China, Russia, Kenya, Nigeria, Ghana, Mexico, El Salvador, Puerto Rico and all parts of the United States. We have children of all faiths, income levels, academic levels, and family structures. We believe that we are a window to the world, and this gift of diversity allows us to relate to everyone as brothers and sisters in Christ. We are grateful for the challenge and opportunities that our school population has presented. I am blessed by a staff that works tirelessly to help students feel that they have the potential to achieve and make a difference. I enjoy each and every child, and I believe that we can nurture their education and their faith development.

We will continue after Mass with an Open House from 12 to 3 pm. I encourage each of you to stop by and see all the good works that are going on in our school. We are always looking for new students so if you know someone, please refer them to St. James the Less Catholic School.

DEL ESCRITORIO DE LA DIRECTORA:

Domingo, 29 de enero, marca el inicio de la Semana de Escuelas Católicas de todo el país. Aquí en Santiago, se inicia la celebración con una misa a las 10:30. Muchos de nuestros estudiantes están aquí celebrando la misa, el coro de 6-7-8 cantara y el coro de campana llevará a cabo un canto de meditación. Nuestros estudiantes servirán como saludadores, traeran los regalos, ayuda con la colección. El tema de la Semana de Escuelas Católicas de la Diócesis es "Las 3 Nuestras" - nuestra parroquia, nuestra escuela, nuestra educación. Estamos especialmente orgullosos del tema por dos razones: nuestra escuela presentó la idea del tema, y creemos que realmente representa lo que creemos aquí en Santiago. La escuela existe como una misión de la parroquia, y no podíamos seguir todo el buen trabajo que hacemos sin el apoyo continuo de cada uno de ustedes.

Verdaderamente "Todos son bienvenidos" aquí. Nuestros hijos vienen de Vietnam, Camboya, China, Rusia, Kenya, Nigeria, Ghana, México, El Salvador, Puerto Rico y todas las partes de los Estados Unidos. Tenemos niños de todas las creencias, niveles de ingreso, nivel académico, y estructuras familiares. Creemos que somos una ventana al mundo, y este regalo de la diversidad nos permite relacionar con todos como hermanos y hermanas en Cristo. Estamos muy agradecidos por el desafío y las oportunidades que nuestra población escolar ha presentado. He sido bendecido por un personal que trabaja incansablemente para ayudar a los estudiantes que tienen el potencial para triunfar y marcar una diferencia. Disfruto cada niño, y creo que podemos nutrir su educación y su desarrollo de la fe.

Vamos a seguir después de la misa con una Casa Abierta de 12 a 3 pm. Animo a cada uno de ustedes a pasar por aquí y ver todas las obras buenas que están pasando en nuestra escuela. Estamos siempre en busca de nuevos estudiantes por lo que si conoces a alguien, por favor refiérase a la Escuela Católica de Santiago El Menor.

RESPECT LIFE MASS. The Most Rev. Frederick F. Campbell is the celebrant at the Respect Life Mass on Monday, Jan. 23 at 10:30 am at St. Joseph Cathedral. On this day, following the anniversary of Roe v. Wade, our diocese will join all of the dioceses of the United States in observing a Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. All are invited to attend. A Rally for Life will be held following the Mass at noon at the Statehouse west plaza.

St. Charles Preparatory School schedules scholarship test to prospective students at 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. on Saturday, January 28 in the Robert C. Walter Student Commons. The test results are used to help determine who will receive academically based scholarships and grants offered by the school to its students in the 2012-2013 school year. . The test is open to all eighth grade boys who are currently enrolled at any of the public, parochial, and private elementary or middle schools in Franklin or the other surrounding counties that comprise Central Ohio. Anyone interested in sitting for the St. Charles scholarship test must register by calling Laurie Berndt in the school office at 614-252-6714 between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.
